THE BEATLES: EIGHT DAYS A WEEK, THE TOURING YEARS

Starring: Paul McCartney, Ringo Starr, John Lennon & George Harrison.

Directed by Ron Howard.

Imagine Entertainment.

PG-13, 2016, 137 minutes.

In the 1960s, the Beatles exploded on to the public scene. Accompanying new interviews of the remaining Beatles, their associates and fans as well as archival interviews of the late ones, this musical documentary directed by Ron Howard features footage of the amazing concert years of 1963 to 1966 when the band became a worldwide cultural phenomena, toured 15 countries and performed more than 250 concerts. It also follows how the Fab Four began to change and grow while the excitement of Beatlemania began to sour their personal lives. Paul McCartney provides context: "By the end, it became quite complicated. But at the beginning, things were really simple."

No reservations necessary! The Friends of Portland Library supports the Library's DVD collection.
